

Standard set for Monday night maintenance outages

The length and timing of planned weekly maintenance outages has been set to fall within a standard two hours between 9:00 pm and 11:00 pm on Monday evenings.

During this time the Ministry of Economic Development online registry services may be unavailable and outage notices will be displayed on any affected sites. Setting this window to a standard time and length will allow for greater certainty with regard to the availability of our online services.