

View copies of other incorporated society's rules

To view another society's rules conduct a free Register Search at www.societies.govt.nz. Begin by locating an appropriate society - for example one that exists for the same purpose as your society. Click on the society's name to view information about the society and copies of documents registered for that society.

Tip | A keyword search may help you to find relevant societies e.g. a keyword search for 'cycling' will locate societies with the word cycling in their name.

You will need Adobe Acrobat to view the document. This program can be downloaded for free by following the Get PDF reader link at the bottom of this page.
