

Annual return membership reports

Each year, every union must advise the Registrar of the number of members it has as at 1 March that year. It must deliver that information to the Registrar by 1 June.

The Registrar will send a reminder the month before the annual return is due to be filed.

Union membership return report 2017

Section 16 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 requires every registered union to file an annual membership return.

Read more...

Union membership return report 2016

Section 16 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 requires every registered union to file an annual membership return.

Read more...

Union membership return report 2015

Section 16 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 requires every registered union to file an annual membership return.

Read more...

Union membership return report 2014

Section 16 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 requires every registered union to file an annual membership return. The returns for 1 March 2014 are presented below.

Read more...

Union membership return report 2013

Section 16 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 requires every registered union to file an annual membership return. The returns for 1 March 2013 are presented below.

Read more...

Union membership return report 2012

Section 16 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 requires every registered union to file an annual membership return. The 2012 report includes information that the Registrar received before 1 July 2012. Returns or corrections received after this date are not included.

Read more...

Union membership return report 2011

Section 16 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 requires every registered union to file an annual membership return. The returns for 1 March 2011 are presented below.

Read more...

Older reports

View older annual membership return reports of the Registrar of Unions here.

Read more...